BRIEFING OF SENIOR US OFFICIALS

25X1A9A

On 6 December a briefing on CIA organization by Mr. [REDACTED] and on FE operations by FE officers was conducted for Brigadier General Sherburne Whipple, Jr., newly designated G-2, USARPAC. He was accompanied by Colonel Glenn Muggelberg and Mr. Rupert Guenther of ACSI. Mr. [REDACTED] of FI attended the whole briefing, and General Cabell came in toward the end. The briefing was set up on three hours' notice because the Army had overlooked notifying the Agency that General Whipple had been scheduled for a briefing on 6 December. To make room for the briefing, [REDACTED] were shifted to Mr. [REDACTED] office.

BRIEFING OF NAVAL ATTACHÉS

25X1A9A

On 5 December a briefing on NSC/USIB/CIA was conducted for 13 naval attachés and assistant naval attachés enrolled in the current Attaché Course at the Naval Intelligence School. At one time there were no presentations on the Agency in this three-week course--although the Agency has always been well represented in the long Postgraduate Course. After Mr. Baird's and General Erskine's efforts at getting better Agency representation at the service schools, talks were held with certain NIS faculty members. Out of these talks came the presentation in the Attaché Course on "Special Field Relationships"--first given by Mr. [REDACTED]. Last month NIS requested Mr. [REDACTED] half-day briefing as the lead-off presentation in the Course. Thus, the 5 December briefing was the first of this type given in the Attaché Course. Since it seems to have met a need, NIS has requested that it be made a permanent feature. The Course is given five times a year.

BFSO BRIEFING

On 30 November a briefing was conducted for the 40 students enrolled in the Department of State's current Basic Foreign Service Officer Course. This was an unusually alert and friendly class. The "briefing" began and went on for ten minutes without interruption. Then came the first question, followed by another, and another, until finally the three hours had passed. There is an obvious advantage to coming on toward the end of a course, as was the case here. The students are all well defrosted!

CIA REFRESHER

On 30 November this program was conducted for some 75 persons from the Photographic Intelligence Center. This was the second in a series of three such briefings.

OS SPECIAL AGENTS BRIEFING

On 2 December a briefing on NSC/USIB/CIA was conducted for the ten students enrolled in Special Agents Training Course #30, sponsored by the Office of Security.

BRIEFING OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS EXECUTIVES

On 2 December an unclassified, off-the-record briefing on CIA was given at American University's School of International Service for some 12 persons enrolled in the current class of the "Training Program for International Business Executives."

ADMINISTRATION

1. All arrangements have been completed for the 14 December trip with [REDACTED] to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.
2. Arrangements have been completed for the 15 December CIA program presented to the students of State's Mid-Career Course.
3. The CIA Review scheduled for 13 December has been canceled and the people (there were not too many of them) re-scheduled for the January running. The DCI needs the room on 13 December.
4. Two reports were prepared for WH during the week.
